About Us

The Victorian Ombudsman (VO) provides a free, independent, accessible and impartial service to the public. Our purpose is to ensure fairness for the public in their dealings with the Victorian public sector, to improve public administration, and engage within both public organisations, the government sector and the broader community. The Ombudsman Act 1973 (Vic) is the governing legislation.

The VO's role is to ensure that the services of state and local government, and other public organisations are delivered in a fair and reasonable manner that is compatible with the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Vic) and that human rights have been taken into consideration in decision making.

About the Role

The Investigation Officer role works in the Investigations team and provides timely complaint handling, assessment and investigation expertise across key projects.

These may include:

- Conducting research and preparation of submissions to external bodies;
- Providing specialist advice on, or leading projects to develop internal policies, procedures and guidelines;
- Leading or assisting with investigations, complex complaints and own motion proposals.

As a sworn member of Ombudsman staff, the Investigation Officer will faithfully and impartially perform the duties of the office of Ombudsman and will not divulge, except according to law, any information received in the performance of those duties.

Core to your success in this role is the ability to obtain a strong understanding of the Ombudsman Act 1973.

Key Accountabilities

- Assess complex complaints and public interest disclosures.

- Undertake initial enquiries, and/or investigate complex complaints and public interest complaints in a timely and efficient manner.
- Provide clear and accurate advice (both verbally and in writing) on issues, recommendations and solutions to the complaints received.
- Prepare case management plans and related correspondence.
- Build and maintain positive relationships with internal and external stakeholders and liaise with public sector agencies.
- Assist with identifying public interest issues and conducting 'own motion' investigations into matters relating to the administration of public sector agencies.
- Build and maintain positive relationships with internal and external stakeholders and liaise with public sector agencies in the course of investigations and in pursuit of the Ombudsman's goals.
- Participate in the continuous improvement of investigation practice and procedures, including through quality assurance activities and policy development.
- Actively contribute to other core functions of the office, including community outreach, portfolio activities, internal and external training and projects.
- Other duties as directed, which may involve supporting other teams within the office.

Key Selection Criteria

1. Recent work experience in a complaints handling, legal, regulatory or investigatory environment (or comparable).
2. Experience in and the capability to work autonomously and productively, within a team-based setting.
3. Analytical thinking and problem-solving ability – including an aptitude for decisiveness and authoritative decision-making, and the ability to think laterally and show initiative in developing solutions.
4. Excellent verbal and written communication skills, including the ability to explain complex issues in plain language.
5. Excellent interpersonal and sound negotiation skills, with an ability to establish and maintain productive relationships internally with office colleagues and externally, with public sector authorities and/or members of the public.
6. Working knowledge of the Victorian public sector and familiarity with Administrative Law principles and legislation – or a demonstrated ability to quickly acquire such knowledge.
